MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

Morning Meeting of 7 January 1969

Carver noted that the South Vietnamese Minister of Education died yesterday and that it is still not clear who the assassins were.

Carver advised that the station input on the pacification Estimate has just arrived.

Maury reported that yesterday's session with the Rivers Subcommittee was peculiar in that CIA participated only briefly and marginally and it would appear that the Subcommittee focused entirely on the Pueblo.

Maury advised that the Western trip with Bob Michaels has been arranged.

Parrott noted that the Secretary-designate of the Air Force, Mr. Seamans, went on record yesterday in support of MOL.

DD/S&T reported that the search for the U-2 pilot continues, although there are no grounds for optimism.

DD/S&T noted that a UN-sponsored meeting on biological warfare is scheduled for the week of 20 January in Geneva and that we will be meeting with the PSAC staff today to determine what the U. S. role will be.

DD/S&T advised that he is leaving this afternoon for Los Angeles to brief Dr. DuBridge.

DDCI led a discussion on certain aspects of the Agency's relationship with the Bureau of the Budget.

The Director noted that he will be seeing Mr. Kissinger late tomorrow afternoon.

Goodwin advised that he still owes William Small of CBS a telephone call concerning his desire for a background briefing in connection with the CBS interview of Francis Gary Powers. DD/S&T noted that he will be seeing Powers on Friday and that the decision on the backgrounder should be deferred until after that meeting.

Goodwin drew attention to the creation of the so-called committee to investigate assassinations directed by a former House Appropriations Committee staff member.
